EDWIN EARL NEWSOM
INFORMATION CONCERNING

PURPOSE:

In your memorandum to Mr. Tolson dated September 26, 1955, reviewing your conversation with Jack Bugas of the Ford Motor Company concerning developments in the Fund for the Republic, Bugas mentioned the name of Earl Newsom, a public relations consultant. While talking with George Sokolsky on other matters, you asked if he had ever had much contact with Newsom. Sokolsky stated that Newsom was very close to Elmo Roper, who is a member of the Board of Trustees for the Fund for the Republic, and that Newsom and Roper had been advising businessmen to liberalize themselves to meet new conditions. Newsom represents, among others, the American Locomotive Company, the Ford Foundation, and the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Sokolsky further stated he has always been suspect of Newsom because during the days of OPA, Newsom, on his own volition, called a meeting of public relations men and urged them to take a stand for OPA against their bosses. Sokolsky further stated that Newsom might be the individual who has been responsible for some of the left-wing developments in big business.

In accordance with your request, there is set forth below a summary of information in Bufiles concerning Newsom:

TO: Mr. Tolson
 FROM: L. B. Nichols
 SUBJECT:

For record purposes, Jack Bugas, of the Ford Motor Company, called endeavoring to reach me on 9/7/55, while I was out of town. I talked to Bugas on 9/8/55. Bugas stated that he wanted to bring me up to date with reference to the developments in the Fund for the Republic. He stated that young Henry Ford was now very much exercised and was carrying on a campaign with the hope of unseating the two top individuals, namely, Paul Hoffman and Robert M. Hutchins. I asked him about W. H. Ferry. Bugas stated that obviously Ferry would go too.

Bugas kept telling me that Henry Ford was very much exercised and he had gotten some of the Trustees exercised. I asked him who they were. He stated that one of the individuals who was very much disturbed was Bethuel M. Webster. I told Bugas that this was rather interesting, particularly in light of the fact that at one time Webster had represented William Remington. Bugas stated that this was news to him. Bugas then informed me that it would be most helpful if he could have a memorandum for his own confidential guidance pointing out the left-wing activities of the Fund for the Republic.

Edwin Earl Newsome

I told Bugas that this would be rather difficult and I did not see how we could do anything but if we could I would get in touch with him. Bugas said nothing whatsoever about the protest of the American Legion at the time which made me very suspicious. In the course of the conversation, Bugas told me that Earl Newsome, a public relations consultant, had been spending considerable time in Detroit; that Newsome, himself, was upset and that Bugas had talked to Newsome about the Fund for the Republic project of investigating the FBI and the American Legion. Newsome expressed the view that he thought any such project as that of investigating the FBI by the Fund for the Republic was beyond the realm of possibility. Bugas stated that he was not unmindful of the fact that W. H. Ferry had worked for Newsome at one time and that there might be a close relationship between the two.

In connection with Earl Newsome, while talking to George Sokolsky on other matters, I asked him if he had ever had much contact with Newsome. Subsequently, George told me that while W. H. Ferry was with the War Production Board, he got into some sort of difficulties in a controversy over the handling of scrap iron and steel. Ferry was put into the War Production Board by Sidney Hillman and George felt that it might be very productive to get a discreet line on the background of Earl Newsome and to see if there was any available information on the alleged difficulties Ferry had with the War Production Board. George further stated that Newsome might be the individual who has been responsible for some of the left-wing developments in big business.

relations counsel, since 1935. He was a member of the Board of Trustees, Village of Pelham Manor, 1945-47. Newsom was a pilot in the U. S. Navy Air Corps in World War I. He is a trustee of Oberlin College, Emma Willard School, American Heritage Foundation. Clubs: Union League (New York City); Pelham Country (board of governors, 1943-45), Men's (president, 1938-39), Pelham Manor, New York; Blind Brook, (Portchester, New York). His home address is 45 Heywood Road, Pelham Manor 65, New York, and his offices are at 597 Madison Avenue, New York 22, New York.

Bufiles reflect that during early 1951 Edwin Earl Newsom was the subject of a "Special Inquiry-State Department (Voice of America)" investigation. This investigation developed nothing of a derogatory nature, and Newsom was recommended by former employers, neighbors, and references as being of good character, loyalty and associates. (123-8983)

The only other references to Newsom in Bufiles pertain to his registration with the State Department as an agent of a foreign principal in his capacity as public relations counsel to Air Commodore George C. Pirie, Air Attache, British Embassy, Washington, D. C., and the International Wool Publicity and Research Secretariat, London, England. Bufile [ ] indicates that Earl Newsom and Company was listed as one of those whose Registration Statement was withdrawn from the public files of the State Department on March 9, 1942.
